1 Introduction

1.1 About the Endeavour Awards

The Endeavour Awards are managed by DEEWR.

The Endeavour Awards is the Australian Government's internationally competitive, merit-based scholarship program providing opportunities for citizens of the Asia-Pacific, Middle East, Europe and Americas to undertake study, research and professional development in Australia. Awards are also available for Australians to undertake study, research and professional development abroad.

The Endeavour Awards aim to:

- Develop on-going educational, research and professional linkages between individuals, organisations and countries;
- Provide opportunities for high achieving individuals to increase their skills and enhance their global awareness;
- Contribute to Australia's position as a high quality education and training provider, and leader in research and innovation; and
- Increase the productivity of Australians through an international study, research or professional development experience.

1.2 Purpose of these Guidelines

These Guidelines provide information for applicants wishing to apply for an Endeavour Award.

3 Application dates

Main round

Applications for all the 2010 Endeavour Awards open on 6 April 2009 and will close at 11:59PM Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST) on 31 July 2009.

Second round

Applications for the second round of the 2010 Endeavour Executive Awards open on 1 December 2009 and will close at 11:59PM Australian Eastern Daylight Savings Time (AEDST) on 31 January 2010. DEEWR reserves the right to offer other Awards during the second round.

Applications for Endeavour Awards will not be accepted outside this period.

4 Application Process

Applications must be received prior to the closing date for a round and must satisfy the Eligibility Requirements (see Section 8 below) in order to be considered by the Endeavour Awards selection panel.

Applicants should be aware that applications that are not received by the closing date will be treated as late applications and will not be considered.

Applicants must apply for 2010 Endeavour Awards online via the website:

<https://endeavouradmin.deewr.gov.au/es/esapplication/Security/Login.aspx>. The online application form is only accessible between 6 April and 31 July 2009 (main round), and 1 December 2009 and 31 January 2010 (second round).

Applicants who do not have internet access may request a hard-copy application form by emailing endeavour.awards@deewr.gov.au indicating in their email the reasons why they are unable to apply online in the email. Hardcopy applications must be received by the closing date. Late applications will not be considered.

5 Responsibility of the applicant

Applicants are responsible for ensuring that they have read these Guidelines and all documents referred to in the Guidelines. Applicants should ensure that their applications meet the Eligibility Requirements detailed below. Applicants must also agree to the terms and conditions for each Award [see Section 12 (international applicants) and 13 (Australian applicants) below].

It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that supporting documentation, including referees reports are submitted by the due date. If supporting documentation is not received or attached to the application by the due date, the application will not be considered.

Applicants are responsible for all costs incurred in the preparation and lodgement of their applications.

6 Online application

The online application process allows applicants to enter details of their proposed program and upload required supporting documentation (see Section 11 below) directly onto the Endeavour Online system.

To apply online, applicants will need to go to the Endeavour Online system at:

<https://endeavouradmin.deewr.gov.au/es/esapplication/Security/Login.aspx>. First time users will need to register with the Endeavour Online system to create a user ID (the applicants nominated email address and password). Once registered, applicants may create a new application or continue working on an existing application.

New applications will be allocated a unique reference number. This application number should be referred to in any correspondence with DEEWR.

Applications do not have to be completed and submitted immediately. Applications may be saved at anytime and may be amended until they are submitted by the closing date. Applications must be completed and submitted by 11:59PM AEST on 31 July 2009 in the case of the main round and 11:59PM AEDST on 31 January 2010 in the case of the second round in order to be considered for a 2010 Endeavour Award.

A Step by Step Guide to using the Endeavour Online Application System may be found at: http://www.endeavour.deewr.gov.au/apply_now/apply_now.htm. Applicants may only view and submit applications created by them.

Upon submission of an application, an email acknowledging receipt of the application will automatically be generated and forwarded to the email address (user ID) used to submit the application.

Applicants are advised to submit their application as early as possible due to the large volume of use on the system on the final day of application.

7 Discrepancies, ambiguities, inconsistencies or errors in an application

The Australian Government will not accept responsibility for any misunderstanding arising from the failure by an applicant to comply with these Guidelines, or arising from any ambiguity, discrepancy or error contained in an application.

Applicants should be aware that giving false or misleading information to DEEWR is a serious offence under the Criminal Code Act 1995 (Cth).

For example, if you completed your Endeavour Award in 2008, you will not be eligible to apply until 2010 for the 2011 Endeavour Awards.

8.5 Endeavour Europe Awards

8.5.1 Award Description

The Endeavour Europe Awards provide financial assistance for postgraduate students from participating countries in Europe to undertake, in any field of study, a Masters degree or PhD in Australia.

The Endeavour Europe Awards aim to:

- assist high achieving students from Europe to undertake study in Australia
- strengthen bilateral ties between Australia and participating countries
- showcase Australia's educational sector
- strengthen mutual understanding between Australians and nationals of the participating countries
- further develop Award Holders' knowledge and skills in their fields of study
- build international linkages and networks.

8.5.2 Award Benefits

Funding	Amount
Travel Allowance	$AUD4,500
Establishment Allowance	$AUD4,000
Monthly Stipend (up to 12 months on a pro-rata basis)	$AUD2,500 per month
Total Award Value	Up to $AUD38,500

Health and travel insurance will be provided.

Endeavour Europe Awards do not provide funding to cover tuition fees.

Funding is available for up to 12 months only and applicants should ensure that they have other funding sources to complete their study if the course extends beyond 12 months.

Additional funds are not available to support accompanying dependants or for return visits to the home country.

8.5.3 Eligibility Requirements for Endeavour Europe Awards

To apply for the 2010 Endeavour Europe Awards, international applicants must first satisfy the eligibility requirements detailed below. Applicants are required to submit a completed online application along with the required supporting documentation.

1. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of a participating country and reside in a participating country (see Section 9 below).
2. International Applicants who wish to apply for the 2010 round must not be living, studying or working in Australia in 2009.

9. Applicants who have completed an Endeavour Award and/or an AusAID scholarship in the preceding two years prior to the commencement of their proposed Award are not eligible to apply. For example, if you completed your Endeavour award in 2008, you will not be eligible to apply until 2010 for the 2011 Endeavour Awards.

8.6 Endeavour Vocational Education and Training (VET) Awards

8.6.1 Award Description

The Endeavour Vocational Education and Training (VET) Awards provide financial support for up to 2.5 years for international students from participating countries to undertake vocational education at a Diploma, Advanced Diploma or Associate Degree level in any field of study in Australia. Vocational education and training provides occupational or work-related knowledge and skills. The courses are traditionally non-academic and directly related to a trade, occupation or 'vocation' in which the applicant participates. These courses exclude degree and higher level programs normally delivered by universities.

English language training in Australia is also available when the English language proficiency requirements of the Australian host institution are not met (See Eligibility Requirements below).

The Endeavour VET Awards aim to:

- enable high achieving students to undertake study in Australia
- further develop Award Holders' knowledge and skills in their areas of expertise
- showcase Australia's vocational education and training sector
- strengthen mutual understanding between the people of Australia and Award Holders' home countries
- build linkages and networks between Australia and participating countries
- address skills shortages in Award Holders' home countries.

Please note that the above requirements are only for the Endeavour Awards.

Applicants will still need to meet English language requirements for:

- entry into their proposed institution; and
- obtaining a visa from DIAC. Information regarding visa requirements is available at:
<http://www.immi.gov.au>.

7. Three referee reports must be submitted on the form provided on the Endeavour Online system. One referee report must be from a supervisor, lecturer or course convenor who is familiar with the applicant's recent academic performance (See Section 11 below).
8. All Endeavour Award Holders must commence their approved program and Award between 15 January and 30 November 2010. Applicants who have commenced or intend to commence their programs at their host organisations in 2009 are ineligible for an Award.

9. Applicants who have completed an Endeavour Award and/or an AusAID scholarship in the preceding two years prior to the commencement of their proposed Award are not eligible to apply. For example, if you completed your Endeavour award in 2008, you will not be eligible to apply until 2010 for the 2011 Endeavour Awards.

8.7 Endeavour Executive Awards

8.7.1 Award Description

The Endeavour Executive Awards provide professional development opportunities (1-4 months) for high achievers in business, industry, education or government from participating countries, including Australia.

The Awards focus on building skills and knowledge through a host work environment rather than through formal enrolment in a study program at a host institution and are not intended to fund direct academic research.

Professional development activities could include management training, peer-to-peer learning, mentoring, short courses and developing leadership skills.

The Endeavour Executive Awards aim to:

- enable high achieving professionals to further develop their skills and knowledge
- deepen professional engagements between Australia and participating countries
- strengthen mutual understanding between the people of Australia and Award Holders' host countries
- build linkages and networks between Australia and participating countries
- allow professionals the opportunity, on returning to their home country, to share their updated skills and knowledge with colleagues.

Applicants must be nominated by either their home organisation or host organisation. The professional development activity must not have a commercial outcome as its purpose.

Host organisations cannot be the applicant's home organisation. For example, host organisations for international applicants cannot include Australian branches of the applicant's home organisation.

In addition, Australians cannot be hosted by any Australian company including branches of their home organisation.

Example

Employees of an Australian bank cannot be placed in an overseas branch of the bank nor can they be hosted by any Australian company overseas.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to research and find an appropriate host organisation and develop their proposed professional development program. DEEWR cannot provide advice on host organisations for the Endeavour Executive Awards.

A home or host organisation may nominate up to 5 applicants.

8.7.2 Award Benefits

Funding	Amount
Travel Allowance	$AUD5,000
Establishment Allowance	$AUD5,000
Monthly Stipend (1 to 4 months on a pro-rata basis)	$AUD2,500 per month
Total Award Value	Up to $AUD20,000

Health and travel insurance will be provided.

Additional funds are not available to support accompanying dependents or for return visits to the home country.

8.7.3 Eligibility Requirements for Endeavour Executive Awards

To apply for the 2010 Endeavour Executive Awards, international and Australian applicants must first satisfy the eligibility requirements detailed below. Applicants are required to submit a completed online application along with the required supporting documentation.

1. International applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of a participating country and reside in a participating country (see Section 9 below).

Example

Raj is an Indian citizen but a permanent resident of the United Kingdom (UK). Raj lives, works and intends to return to his job as an engineer in the UK at the end of his Endeavour Executive Awards. Raja cannot apply for the 2010 Endeavour Executive Award as the UK is not a participating country for the Endeavour Executive Awards. However, if he was living and working in India and intending to return to India at the end of his Endeavour Executive Award, he would be eligible to apply as India is a participating country.

2. International Applicants who wish to apply for the 2010 round must not be living, studying or working in Australia in 2009.
3. Australian applicants must be residing in Australia. Applicants must not be studying, living or working in the proposed host country in 2009.
4. Applicants holding dual citizenship or permanent residency status in their host country are ineligible to apply.
5. Applicants (both international and Australian) must have an undergraduate degree and at least 5 years professional work experience. Applicants not holding an undergraduate degree will need to demonstrate at least 10 years relevant professional work experience.
6. Applicants must be nominated by either their home organisation or the host organisation.
7. Applicants must have in writing confirmation of acceptance or affiliation with the host organisation(s).
8. Applicants (both international and Australian) must demonstrate English language proficiency in one of the following ways:
 - a. Have undertaken one of the following English language tests, no earlier than 31 December 2007, and obtained the minimum English language requirements set out below:

Certified Copies

Applicants must certify their proof of citizenship, permanent residency (if applicable), IELTS and TOEFL results, and academic transcripts.

To certify a document as a true copy, applicants should present the original document and a copy to a Justice of the Peace, Commissioner of Oaths, Public Notary or other formally recognised authority in their home country. This could include lawyers, doctors, civil servants or university Deans. The official should sight both documents and certify with their stamp, signature or both that the copy presented is a true copy of the original document. The cost of any fees charged by notaries for certification of documents is the responsibility of the applicant.

When submitting an online application, applicants should scan the certified true copies of their supporting documents (not the originals) and attach them as .pdf, .doc or .rtf files. The system will not accept .jpeg files.

Please do not send original documents to DEEWR.

12 Conditions and limitations (international Applicants)

The conditions and limitations outlined below apply to all Awards and must be observed by all international Award Holders.

Award Commencement

- Award Holders must sign an Award Contract with the Contractor prior to commencing the Award.
- The Award is conditional upon Award Holders meeting any conditions that are outlined in the Award Offer letter sent to successful applicants prior to commencement.
- Award Holders must commence their Award after 15 January 2010 (main round) or 1 July 2010 (second round).
- Award Holders must commence their Award no later than 30 November 2010. Awards cannot be deferred.
- Award Holders must undertake their Award for at least the minimum Award duration (if applicable).
- It is the responsibility of Award Holders to confirm:
 - For Award Holders who are undertaking an Australian qualification- enrolment with the host institution.
 - For Award Holders who are undertaking postdoctoral research or research towards a degree in their home country- affiliation with the host organisation/institution.
 - For Award Holders who are undertaking professional development- affiliation with the host organisation.
- An Award is conditional upon gaining affiliation or enrolment with a host organisation or educational institution.
- Should an Award Holder be prevented for any reason from taking up their Award within a reasonable timeframe, DEEWR may, in its absolute discretion, withdraw the offer of the Award.
- Award Contracts will outline all conditions and limitations for travel and health insurance, including level of cover, where applicable.

Citizenship and Visas

- Award Holders must not hold citizenship and/or permanent residency status of Australia for the term of their Award.
- It is the responsibility of Award Holders to apply for and satisfy the requirements for the issue of an appropriate entry visa to Australia. The offer of an Award does not guarantee the granting of a visa and is conditional upon gaining a visa.
- Award Holders may be required to undertake a medical examination to satisfy health requirements for the issue of a visa for entry into Australia.

Approved Program

- Award Holders must undertake the proposed program outlined in their application.
- Award Holders must follow the approved program and abide by the rules of the host organisation/institution.
- Award Holders are expected to reside in Australia throughout the Award period. If overseas travel is proposed, approval must be obtained from both the host organisation/institution and the Contractor.
- Any changes to the Award Holder's program or itinerary must have the prior approval of DEEWR through the Contractor.

Award Suspension and Termination

- Award Holders must comply with the laws of Australia.
- The host organisation/institution must notify the Contractor of any circumstances which could lead to the suspension of an Award. Stipends are not payable during suspensions, including suspension due to illness.
- The Award may be terminated at any time for misconduct, for breaches of the conditions of the Award, or for failure to make satisfactory academic progress (where applicable).
- Progress will be assessed against reports provided by the Award Holder and the program outlined in the Award Holder's application (where applicable).

Part-time employment

- Award Holders need to check their visa conditions with DIAC to determine whether they are entitled to work in Australia. Award Holders must also obtain permission to undertake employment from their course convenor or program supervisor and the Contractor.

Award Completion

- Award Holders are expected to return to their home country at the completion of their programs.

13 Conditions and limitations (Australian Applicants)

The conditions and limitations, outlined below, apply to all Awards and must be observed by all Australian Award Holders.

Award Commencement

- Award Holders must sign an Award Contract with the Contractor prior to commencing the Award.
- The Award is conditional upon Award Holders meeting any conditions that are outlined in the Award Offer letter sent to successful applicants prior to commencement.
- Award Holders must commence their Award after 15 January 2010 (main round) or 1 July 2010 (second round).
- Award Holders must commence their Award no later than 30 November 2010. Awards cannot be deferred.
- Award Holders must undertake their Award for at least the minimum Award duration.
- It is the responsibility of Award Holders to confirm:
 - For Award Holders who are undertaking postdoctoral research or research towards a degree in Australia- affiliation with the host organisation/institution.
 - For Award Holders who are undertaking professional development- affiliation with the host organisation.
- An Award is conditional upon gaining affiliation with a host organisation or educational institution.
- Award Contracts will outline all conditions and limitations for travel and health insurance, including level of cover, where applicable.

Police Checks

- All Award Holders will be required to undergo a police check before their Award is confirmed. It is an important consideration of DEEWR that recipients are suitable persons who will enhance the reputation of Australia and the Endeavour Awards overseas. A criminal record will not automatically disqualify an applicant from receiving an Award. However if an Award Holder is found to have a criminal record or conviction which DEEWR considers to be of a serious nature then DEEWR may, in its absolute discretion, refuse to grant an Award.

Citizenship and Visas

- It is the responsibility of Award Holders to apply for and satisfy the requirements for the issue of an appropriate entry visa to their host country. The offer of an Award does not guarantee the granting of a visa and is conditional upon gaining a visa. Any costs associated with obtaining the visa is the responsibility of the Award Holder.
- Award Holders must not hold citizenship and/or permanent residency status of their host country for the term of their Award.
- Award Holders may be required to undertake a medical examination to satisfy health requirements for the issue of a visa for entry into their host country.

Travel Warnings

- Australian applicants should note that if they are successful in their application for an Endeavour Award which involves travel to a country or a part of a country that has either:
 - a. been assessed by DFAT as an area to which Australians are advised to reconsider the need to travel (Level 4 DFAT advice), they are required to attend an in-country briefing with DEEWR's Counsellor on arrival in their Host Country and prior to commencing their Award; or
 - b. been assessed by DFAT as an area to which Australians are advised not to travel (Level 5 DFAT advice); or where DEEWR considers a particular country is not likely to be safe; or where DEEWR considers that the Award Holder would not be able to complete the program for which the Award was given, then DEEWR reserves the right to withdraw the offer of an Award. In those circumstances DEEWR may, in its absolute discretion, offer alternative arrangements to the Award Holder. Applicants and Award Holders should monitor the DFAT website at the following page for current information about countries that are considered a travel risk: <http://www.smarttraveller.gov.au>

Approved Program

- Award Holders must undertake the approved program outlined in their application.

- Award Holders must follow the approved program and abide by the rules of the host organisation/institution.
- Award Holders are expected to reside in their host country throughout the Award period. If overseas travel is proposed approval must be obtained from both the host organisation/institution and the Contractor.
- Any changes to the Award Holder's program or itinerary must have the prior approval of DEEWR through the Contractor.

Award Suspension and Termination

- Award Holders must comply with the local laws of the host country.
- The host organisation/institution will notify the Contractor of any circumstances which could lead to the suspension of an Award. Stipends are not payable during suspensions, including suspension due to illness.
- The Award may be terminated at any time for misconduct, for breaches of the conditions of the Award, or for failure to make satisfactory academic progress (where applicable).
- Progress will be assessed against reports provided by the Award Holder and the program outlined in the Award Holder's application (where applicable).
- Should an Award Holder be prevented for any reason from taking up their Award within a reasonable timeframe, DEEWR may, at its absolute discretion, withdraw the offer of an Award.

Part-time employment

- This is subject to approval from the relevant authority in the host country. Award Holders must also obtain permission to undertake employment from their course convenor or program supervisor and the Contractor.

Award Completion

- Award Holders are expected to return to Australia at the completion of their program.

14 Holding other scholarships

15 Assessment of applications

All applications submitted online or received as a completed hardcopy application by the closing date will be checked by DEEWR to determine whether they meet the Eligibility Criteria (as outlined earlier in these Guidelines). Applications that meet the Eligibility Criteria will be referred to an independent selection panel for consideration and ranked against the Selection Criteria (see below). DEEWR may short list applications against the Selection Criteria prior to assessment by the selection panel.

Please address the selection criteria as fully as possible in your application.

16 Selection Criteria

Eligible applications will be assessed against the following selection criteria:

16.1 Selection Criteria - Postgraduate and Postdoctoral Awards

- a record of high-level academic achievement in the applicant's chosen field of study
- a well defined study or research program
- a proposal that is relevant to the needs and interests of Australia and the applicant's home country
- the applicant's potential to foster ongoing collaboration and cooperation with Australia and potential to participate at a high level in the academic or wider community in their home country on return from Australia
- unique achievement or outstanding service in any area that provides a benefit to your community (see explanation below)

16.2 Selection Criteria - Vocational Education and Training Awards

- a record of prior high-level academic achievement and relevant work experience. Preference may be given to applicants with work experience that is directly related to their proposed course
- a proposal that is relevant to the applicant's needs and interests and those of their home country
- the applicant's potential to address skills/needs/shortages specific in their home country through the chosen course of study
- the applicant's potential to foster ongoing collaboration and cooperation with Australia and potential to participate in their chosen profession and the wider community in their home country on return from Australia
- unique achievement or outstanding service in any area that provides a benefit to your community (see explanation below).

16.3 Selection Criteria - Executive Awards

- high-level academic achievement and for at least 5 years relevant work experience. Applicants not holding an undergraduate degree will need to demonstrate at least 10 years of relevant work experience
- a proposal that is relevant to the applicant's needs and interests and those of Australia
- the applicant's potential to participate at a high level in their profession or the wider community on their return home from abroad
- the potential for ongoing links between the host and home organisations
- unique achievement or outstanding service in any area that provides a benefit to your community (see explanation below)

16.4 Definition of unique achievement or outstanding service

You will need to demonstrate unique achievement or outstanding service in any area that provides a benefit to your nation or your community such as arts and culture, environment, multiculturalism, healthcare, education, civic duty, business innovation, community volunteerism, sports and recreation and youth or seniors' leadership. This involvement could include an ability to lead and motivate others as well as displaying a talent for new solutions, ideas and enterprises that show originality.

How can you demonstrate that you have met this selection criterion?

Your evidence can include the following:

- Charity work such as helping the disadvantaged or disabled;
- Volunteering, coaching or instructing, umpiring or refereeing;

- Honorary service to university organisations, such as the student union, sporting clubs, student representative council;
- Honorary service on school or university newspapers, clubs or activities;
- Honorary service to community organisations such as legal aid offices outside normal degree requirements;
- Election to office in community organisations;
- Success in any national awards for excellence;
- Successful mentoring relationships;
- Publications and presentations (not academic) in the course of doing work to benefit your community.

You may wish to get confirmation of your unique achievement or outstanding service in your community from one of your referees.

17 Selection panels

The Endeavour Awards selection panels will comprise at least three panel members, appointed by DEEWR. The panel members may include academics, professionals and government representatives.

Selection panel members are required to evaluate and rank applications online through the Endeavour Panel Assessment System against the Selection Criteria (see above). Individual rankings from all members of the panel are combined together automatically using the Endeavour Panel Assessment System to give an overall ranking list. A selection panel meeting is held at DEEWR's National Office to finalise the selection process. Panel members are required to make recommendations to DEEWR with the final decision on Award allocations being made by DEEWR.

18 Outcome of applications

Awards will be announced by November 2009 (main round) and early April 2010 (second round). DEEWR will notify all applicants via email regarding the outcomes of their applications.

Successful applicants will be required to accept their Award Offer online by the date specified in the notification letter. Applicants will also be required to sign and return a 'Declaration of Acceptance' attached to their notification letter, prior to their Award being confirmed.

Additionally all successful Australian applicants will be required to undergo a police check before their Award is confirmed (see Section13).

Upon acceptance of the Award Offer, successful applicants will be provided with further information about commencing their Award.

19 Post selection

The Contractor has been engaged by DEEWR to provide post-selection support services to Award Holders. These services include:

- A dedicated case manager
- Pre-departure briefings
- Provision of advice on visas, health, travel, insurance, accommodation and other relevant information
- Payment of allowances
- Reporting to DEEWR on Award Holders' progress

Once applicants have accepted their offer of an Award and returned a signed 'Declaration of Acceptance' their details will be transferred to the Contractor.

The Contractor will be in contact with all Award Holders within a month of receiving Award Holder details. The Contractor will firstly contact all Award Holders to confirm Award details including commencement date and confirmed host organisation/institution. Award Holders will then be allocated a dedicated case manager to assist them throughout the duration of their Award.

20 The Privacy Act 1988

DEEWR is bound, in administering the Endeavour Awards, by the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988 (the Privacy Act). Section 14 of the Privacy Act contains the Information Privacy Principles (IPPs) which prescribe the minimum legal standards for handling personal information.

DEEWR and any of its contracted service providers (CSPs) involved in the Endeavour Awards must abide by the IPPs when handling personal information collected for the purposes of administering and/or facilitating that scheme or program. DEEWR and its CSPs must ensure that:

- personal information is collected in accordance with IPPs 1-3;
- suitable storage arrangements, including appropriate filing procedures are in place;
- suitable security arrangements exist for all records containing personal information;
- access to a person's own personal information held by the organisation is made available to the person at no charge;
- records are accurate, up-to-date, complete and not misleading;
- where a record is found to be inaccurate, the correction is made;
- where a person requests that a record be amended because it is inaccurate but the record is found to be accurate, the details of the request for amendment are noted on the record;
- the personal information is only to be used for the purposes for which it was collected, or for other purposes where expressly allowed by IPP 10; and
- personal information is only disclosed in accordance with IPP 11.

Endeavour Awards

AUSTRALIAN SCHOLARSHIPS

2010 Endeavour Awards applicant

Dear Admissions Office

Please be advised that this applicant is applying for the 2010 round of the Endeavour Awards.

The Endeavour Awards is the Australian Government's internationally competitive, merit-based scholarship program providing opportunities for citizens of the Asia-Pacific, Middle East, Europe and the Americas to undertake study, research and professional development in Australia. Awards are also available for Australians to undertake study, research and professional development abroad.

Applications for the 2010 round of the Endeavour Awards open on 6 April 2009 and close on 31 July 2009. As part of the eligibility requirements for the Endeavour Awards, applicants must attach a letter of offer from their proposed host institution to their Endeavour Awards applications. A conditional letter of offer will be accepted at the time of application.

We ask for your assistance in providing suitable applicants with their conditional letters of offer, provided that the applicant has met your institution's entry requirements and has submitted their application to your institution in the required timeframe.

If you require more information regarding the Endeavour Awards, please visit the Endeavour Awards website at: www.endeavour.deewr.gov.au or contact the Endeavour Awards Management Team at: endeavour.awards@deewr.gov.au.

Thank you for your assistance and contribution to the success of the 2010 Endeavour Awards.

Kind regards

The Endeavour Awards Team
